

Location/Sites – Shokomoka (lodge) NG19 / Fly camp NG 33 and NG 34

A mobile safari on horseback, where guests will explore this game rich area which bordering the Southern part of the renowned Moremi reserve. With no fences, this area is wild, remote and rich in beauty of its landscape and diversity of game. To experience this on horseback on well trained responsive horses, is an unbeatable experience. The mobile safari starts at our partnering luxury tented camp, and involved a support truck or “go ahead” vehicle which pitches the tents and site for guests arrival where guests can expect to be welcomed by a lit fire, welcome drinks and friendly staff ready to take the horses to their picket line for the night at camp. Guests have time to freshen up from the adrenaline packed ride, to the aroma of freshly cooked food emanating from the bush kitchen with an evening of fine dining ahead, in the most beautiful setting watching the bush come to life with drinks in hand as the sun sets.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival and intro ride. Night Shokomoka lodge

Pickup by a representative at Maun Airport before a 1.5 hour “game drive” to a location in the bush, where you have the opportunity to change into riding gear, after a safety brief and introduction. Camp. You will be allocated your horse, and set off for your approx 2 hour intro ride to the lodge. Once you arrive in camp you will be given time to settle in before late lunch, with an opportunity to watch the sun set or to just take in the setting at the pools deck before your 3 course dinner.

Day 2: Moving day – Shokomoka to Fly camp on the river. Lunch on route. Night Fly camp river

Wake up each day is at dawn to ensure best game viewing. After breakfast, you will ride the river frontage and open plains, quietly tracking game and picking up the pace in the more open areas covering some ground. You might get the chance to canter alongside giraffe, and view the elephants which are abundant in the area. You will arrive at a spot in the bush in time for lunch before you continue to fly camp, which will be home for the next three days. In the late afternoon, you will settle into fly camp and can enjoy sunset drinks before your three-course candlelit meal.

Day 3: Morning ride, lunch at camp, afternoon ride and sundowners. Night Fly camp river

Early wake up call, and light breakfast before you set off to explore the area. Today you will explore the open areas, in search for different game. You might be lucky enough to find cheetah, or herds of zebra and wildebeest. You will return to camp for lunch, and a well deserved rest, followed by high tea.

after the heat of the day, you will depart for your afternoon ride. Just before you ride into camp, you will stop at a beautiful location for sundowners before you return to camp for dinner.

Day 4: Morning ride and optional afternoon mokoro or game drive. Night fly camp river

After breakfast, you will explore the area further. Return to camp for lunch, and opt for an afternoon game drive, or mokoro (at additional cost) and allow the horses to have a well deserved rest for the afternoon. IN the evening you can watch the animals come in to drink water, as you witness the bush come to life as the sun sets.

Day 5: Moving day to fly camp on plains. Lunch on route. Night camp plains

After breakfast, you will head towards the next destination, heading East. Your guide will assess the area, in search for tracks and signs. Your guide will point out his findings, and lead you up to the sighting which is a fantastic experience. Lunch will be served in the bush, under a shady tree, to escape the mid day heat. After a siesta, you will continue to fly camp, where you will arrive in the late afternoon, in time to settle in and take in your new surroundings.

Day 6: Morning and afternoon ride, lunch at camp. Night camp plains.

You will depart early, to explore this new area. With plenty of opportunity to jump over fallen logs as you ride the more arid areas with less vegetation as you move away from the water. Lunch will be served at camp, with time to relax before high tea and departure on the afternoon ride. Freshen up before you relax by the camp fire and enjoy your three course meal.

Day 7: Moving day fly camp plains to Shokomoka lodge, lunch on route. Night Shokomoka

Depart fly camp, in the morning, heading south towards Shokomoka lodge. With a stop for lunch in the bush, you will continue meandering the river and open areas, to arrive into camp in time for high tea and either a game drive, or just to relax in the comfort of the lodge after some time on route.

Day 8: Morning ride, departure.

After early breakfast, you have the opportunity for a last ride before you say “goodbye” to the horses and team, and head to the airport.
